September 9, 2011

Greetings,

Please remember to check your acornmail regularly for any updates or information recently sent. Remember to clean out your acornmail account regularly so you do not miss important information sent from the college. This should also include deleting old “sent” messages and emptying your trash. Also, the Graduate Programs web site is full of valuable information, you should visit our web site when you need any forms or updated information. Your program of study, course rotations, application for graduation and catalogs are just some of the important items you will find useful.
