G.I.F.T. - Graduate Information for Today!

July 14, 2010

Graduate Students,

Summer courses are coming to an end and you will be on a short break before fall courses begin. I encourage you to take this time and enjoy the next couple weeks, come back refreshed and ready to go this fall.

Below are some of the upcoming important dates you need to be aware of:
Summer Office hours at Peru State are 7:30 – 4:00 Until August 16th

July	30	Summer session ends
August	7	Graduation
August	23	Fall online courses begin – (cohorts begin Sept. 11)

All upcoming dates can be found at: <http://www.peru.edu/graduate/dates.htm>

Be sure to get registered as soon as possible for Fall courses and give yourself time to get your textbooks – the updated text list for courses can be found at our Graduate Programs website.

Important Change Beginning Fall 2010 Semester

To improve conditions associated with student success, there is no longer an add/drop period during the first week of 8-week courses. Students will need to add or drop these courses before the start date. Courses will be available the weekend before the start date for those registered.

Please check the course descriptions and syllabi on the Graduate Programs website under forms and documents.

Peru State College is proud of its Masters degree programs. Our MSOM in Entrepreneurial and Economic Development is comparable to many of the higher priced MBA programs throughout the country! This degree option opens many doors, whether you are starting a new career or advancing in your current field. Our reputation for quality instruction combined with our convenience and affordability make this degree option a true value. Help us spread the word, “We are Quality; We ARE Peru State College!”

Don't forget the graduate staff is here to help you in anyway we can – our staff consists of your advisor, Dr. Greg Seay, gseay@peru.edu, Linda Staples, lstaples@peru.edu, and Jessica Stanley, jstanley@peru.edu. Do not hesitate to contact us with your questions or comments.

Thought for the Month:

BIG things happen when you live out your dreams. Find your true peace and happiness by accepting who you are and reaching deep within your very own abilities and talents.
