

Peru State College Commuter – Exemption Form

Student's Name: _____ Date: _____

Peru State College is a residential college, requiring students to live in campus housing for four semesters. An exception may be granted if you are commuting from your parent's or legal guardian's home within 50 miles of Peru by filling out this form and returning it to the Housing Office.

I do not need campus housing because:

- I will reside with my parent or legal guardian in their residence within 50 miles of Peru. (Mileage is verified by Map Quest). All students who check this box must have this form notarized by their parent or legal guardian and approved by the Director of Housing. (See below)
My address will be:

Phone: _____
- I will have junior status (60 or more credits) prior to registering for the next academic semester. Current number of credits: _____.
- I will be a part-time student (less than 8 credits). I am registered for (number of) credits: _____.
- I am married. My spouse's name is: _____.
- I am a single parent.
- I am 21 years old on or before the next academic semester. Birth Date: _____.
- I will be student teaching. _____ Fall (fill in year) _____ Spring (fill in year)
- Graduation _____ May (fill in year) _____ December (fill in year)
- I will be transferring to: _____ (Need proof of enrollment at other institution.)
- Military Duty

I certify that the above information is true and will be in effect the entire academic year. I realize that if the above information is not true, I will have violated the Peru State College Code of Conduct and I could be charged for any period of time that I am in violation of the housing policy.
