STUDENT SENATE ELECTION RELEASE FORM

This form is for the purpose of determining a candidate’s eligibility for Student Senate election, and ultimately membership. This form gives the duly appointed members of the Student Senate Political Committee the authority to review your records, in order to be certain you are not on any form of PSC probation, and that your minimum grade point average is in accordance with Student Senate policy. The findings of the committee will remain confidential, revealed only to you and other members of that committee.

I, the undersigned, have read and understood the reasons for signing this release form and do hereby give the duly appointed Student Senate Political Committee members the authorization to check my personal records for purposes of determining eligibility for candidacy. This form is understood to be valid during the election period, void after such time, unless the undersigned is elected to office. In the case you are elected it will remain in effect until the undersigned has left office.
