Peru State Students:

Following the important update extending spring break through Friday, March 20, Peru State College will pass along additional information as it becomes available. Please be aware that this situation remains fluid.

You are invited to visit the College’s Coronavirus website for the most up-to-date information. If you have questions, please contact Jason Hogue at jhogue@peru.edu.

Academics

All online eight-week classes that begin on Monday, March 16 will continue as scheduled. All online 16-week courses will continue as planned. Students enrolled in hybrid courses will be contacted by their instructors regarding any changes in on-campus meetings.

The Library will continue to be open during regularly scheduled hours.

Athletics

The NAIA has canceled winter sports championships including women’s basketball and men’s basketball.

Additional communication will come out about conference and non-conference play in the near future. Please contact your coach with any questions about play or practice. However, these decisions have not yet been made by the Heart of America Conference and the NAIA.

The Fitness Center will be open. Please check your e-mail for updates about hours.

Campus

Campus offices will remain open and all services will be available.

Campus activities involving off-campus groups will be canceled through Friday, March 20. Please see above for more information about athletic competitions. Additional determinations may be made as additional decisions are made.

Facility Services is committed to providing more frequent cleaning services to campus. Public areas will be cleaned and disinfected more often. Additional staff will be brought to campus to accomplish this goal. Bottles of hand sanitizer are also available in public places with additional wipes in computer labs.

Residence Halls

The Residence Halls will open at 10 a.m. on Sunday, March 15 as scheduled. They will remain open throughout the semester.

The Dining Hall will also remain open and in service. Dining hours will be communicated through e-mail.

On-Campus Student Employment

If you will be back on campus, student employees should contact their supervisor regarding work needs.

Best,

Jason
