Dear Students,

If you cannot access to your physical textbooks or did not purchase physical textbooks, we are able to get you free access to many electronic textbook titles for the remainder of the semester.

To determine if the textbook you need is available as an electronic version, follow these instructions:

1. Log into https://bookshelf.vitalsource.com using your @peru.edu email account and password. If you did not set up an account previously this semester, click the link to Create a VitalSource Account.
2. In the upper left corner of the screen, click on “Explore.”
3. In the search field, enter the name of the book or ISBN for your book. If you don’t recall the name of your book, consult your course syllabus or search through Bookstore site at https://peru.ecampus.com.
4. Choose your book and then click “Borrow.” Unfortunately, not every book is available on this site and you are limited to 7 books.
5. To access the electronic book, you should see the book under the Library tab. To come back to it later, log into https://bookshelf.vitalsource.com and click on “Library” in the upper left corner of the screen. Your book is saved there. The Explore tab will help you find additional books.
6. Note that this website is different than the Peru State bookstore website.

Several of us have tested this and it works pretty well. I would be sure to check this out in the next few days if you do not have access to your textbooks.

Those textbooks with electronic access codes are not included. But you should still have access to those materials through the “Digital Bookshelf” at https://peru.ecampus.com.

Thanks,

Tim
