Statistics Courses

If a student has a regular statistics course at the CC, yes, it counts for our Math 340 requirement. If they have something that says something like “Using statistics” or something similar to that, use your judgment or just ask the Dean. In other words, it has to be a math technique oriented course. Unless they completed their AA degree and benefit from the seamless transfer agreement, they need to take an upper level global studies course with us. Their course may not be wasted though, as it can often count in the social science or humanities areas, or as a general elective. I’m copying Dixie on my response in case me recollections are faulty.
Agenda Item 3

Scholarships and Advising

For those of you who advise Peru campus students rather than Annex students, please note as part of your role as advisor that you may have advisees (either freshmen or transfer students) who have been awarded either Campus Citizen or Campus Continuing Studies scholarships. Both scholarships require the student to be enrolled in at least 12 credits of campus coursework for each term the scholarship is awarded. This spring we have had a couple of situations where students who received one of these scholarships were NOT enrolled in the minimum number of campus courses and, as a result, were ineligible for the scholarship for this semester.

While it is ultimately the student's responsibility to be aware of the requirements for the scholarships they are awarded and ensure that they meet them, I wanted to pass along this information to you as advisors so that, as you discuss registration plans with advisees, you can check to see whether they are awardees for either of these scholarships, and if so, help them meet this 12 credit campus course requirement. Thanks so much for your efforts - they are appreciated.
