Why does a student organization need an advisor?

An advisor can prove to be a valuable asset to your organization by sharing their life experiences, wisdom, and providing continuity, organizational memory, and connections to resources. The key role of the advisor is to serve as a resource for the organization. Take some time to discuss reciprocal expectations with your advisor(s). Try to establish open lines of communication that will enable you to work together effectively.

What is the role of an advisor?

The role of an advisor is to communicate with, guide, and assist the organization; attend organization meetings, events, and fundraisers; be knowledgeable of all policies that may impact the organization; and monitor compliance with budgetary/financial guidelines established by the College and student government.

An advisor must sign the Advisor Agreement Form once they are chosen by a club/org. If an advisor is switched the new advisor must complete the form before the organization will be deemed as active.

Community Service

As official 3300 organizations, it is expected that your members stay involved. This involvement is intended to benefit not only campus itself, but the surrounding community as well. To satisfy this expectation, 2 separate projects of community service are required by each 3300 organization every academic year. Both projects will need to be presented in your club's annual report. To present your projects, make sure to provide photographic proof and to submit a brief summary to the Director of Student Activities and Programs of community service events. Both are needed to ensure the validity of your project. Please ensure that the Student Activities Office is notified of your form of community service prior to its completion.
