

INDEPENDENT STUDY PROPOSAL

An Independent Study is a carefully organized learning activity with specific objectives and methods of evaluation developed in consultation with a faculty member. Courses are numbered 499, 599 or 699 depending on level. To be eligible to take an Independent Study, a student must have completed sixty (60) semester hours (junior standing) and be capable of doing independent research, work, and study. The following additional regulations apply to Independent Study courses:

- 1 No more than six (6) semester hours of Independent Study may be counted toward graduation requirements.
- 2 No more than one (1) Independent Study (a maximum of three [3] hours) may be taken in a given semester.
- 3 The student must communicate with the instructor at least once each week.
- 4 An Independent Study Proposal must be completed and submitted to the appropriate Dean and the Student Records Office when registering for the course.

This proposal must be completed by the student in consultation with the instructor and approved by the appropriate Dean prior to the last day to add/drop regular semester courses.
